The Notice of Allowance mailed December 21, 2005 is acknowledged.

A telephone interview that took place between the Examiner and the undersigned on November 28, 2005 is acknowledged. The content of that interview is accurately reflected in the Examiner's Amendment that appears on page 2 of the Notice of Allowance.

The Examiner's reasons for allowance indicated on Page 3 of the Notice of Allowance are apparently directed toward subject matter included in claim 3. However, it is respectfully submitted that each claim is different, and that there are other claims which have been allowed which do not have all of the features recited in the Examiner's Reasons for Allowance; and yet the Examiner's careful

Appl. No. 10/705,685
Response to 8/30/05 Office Action
Atty. Dkt. MI40-382

examination has resulted in allowance of these other claims as well as allowance of claims 3. It is axiomatic in PTO examination that if the Examiner had predicated his rationale for allowance of all the claims solely only on the stated reasons, the other claims not having all such features would have been rejected, and they were not. Accordingly, it is believed that the Examiner's stated reasons were drafted specifically in reference to limitations of one particular claim and that other reasons may apply to the other claims. Each claim is believed to be allowable for its recited features in combination rather than for only the limitations that make claim 3 allowable, particularly where the Examiner has allowed claims having such features and allowed other claims not having such features.

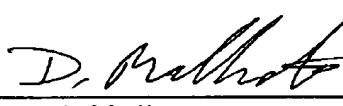

If the Examiner does not agree that all of claims 3, 5-12, and 23-37 are allowable, including those claims that do not contain all the limitations listed in the Reasons For Allowance, the Examiner is requested to reopen prosecution.

The undersigned is available for telephone consultation at any time.

Respectfully submitted,
